Music Magazines and Journals

2016-2017
Mack Library Periodicals offers resources to equip your classroom and provide your students with current information in their field. This brochure is a list of the music periodicals that Mack Library currently receives in print. A complete list of holdings within this subject is available through the periodicals office, and numerous journals are accessible through the databases found on the library website. The music journals are kept in the Music Library of the Gustafson Fine Arts Center.
