Policy Statement for Use of
The John and Bettie Dreisbach Library

The Lord has given us a wonderful resource through the generosity of John and Bettie Dreisbach. Some of these books are quite common, but others are rare and hard to find. They provide information on many aspects of missions. Our desire is to promote the use of these books by God’s people, in order to further their understanding, burden, and zeal for the missions’ cause. We ask that you use these books with care and abide by the following procedures:

Checkout policy

- You may check out the book for a maximum of three weeks. You may renew the book one time. There is a $0.10 per day late fee.

- You may check out no more than three books per visit.

- We ask that you not sub-loan the book(s) to anyone else.

- Books identified by a cream-colored marker designating “Not for Circulation” must remain in the library. These have been deemed rare books or books that are not in good enough condition to be removed from the library.

- To check out a book, please see the receptionist. Be prepared to give your contact information (name, address, phone number, and e-mail address), the title of the book, and the date of checkout.

- We ask you to understand that if a book is damaged or lost while under your care, you will reimburse The John and Bettie Dreisbach Library for the cost of repair or the replacement of the book.

Happy reading . . .
