CQ Researcher

CQ Researcher is often the first source that librarians recommend when researchers are seeking original, comprehensive reporting and analysis on issues in the news. Founded in 1923 as Editorial Research Reports, CQ Researcher is noted for its in-depth, unbiased coverage of health, social trends, criminal justice, international affairs, education, the environment, technology and the economy. Reports are published in print and online 44 times a year, by CQ Press, an imprint of SAGE Publications.

1. Go to library.bju.edu and click on Online Databases above the search box.
2. Select “C”
3. Choose CQ Researcher.
4. Each day there is a new Featured Report.
5. Enter your search term(s) in the search box; to search for a complete phrase, place it in quotes.

---

1. With Advanced Search use search operators to narrow the search: and, or, not, *, w/#
   - “And” retrieves all documents that discuss both terms;
   - “Or” retrieves all documents that discuss both or one term;
   - “Not” retrieves all documents that discuss the first but excludes documents with the second search term.
   - “*” is used in place of letters or the rest of the word, for instance after a root word to retrieve all suffixes.
   - “w/#” when used with a numeral in place of the symbol, 2 search terms within a certain number of words.

2. Limit or expand your search so that the results will be as accurate as possible. Limiters (to narrow your search) and expanders (to broaden your search) will vary according to the database.
Creating a Personal Login

Creating a personal login will allow you to benefit from the full capabilities of CQ Electronic Library.

1. Choose the down arrow next to USING CQR
2. Click on “Log In to your profile”. Then click on “Create a new Account. Complete the registration form and click “Proceed.”

---

Your Profile

You are logged in as: ![Your name]

To view your saved profile information, select the Items on the upper left navigation bar or use the following links:

- Favorite Documents
- Document History
- Saved Searches
- E-mail Alerts
Creating Persistent Links

Persistent Links to articles:

- Click on the title of the article and at the bottom of the record is a link that can be copied and added to any document, LMS, or saved for future use. The Document URL can be used to access the article at another time.

  Document ID: cqresrre1999091000
  Document URL: http://library.cqpress.com/cqresearcher/cqresrre1999091000

- By clicking on Permissions at the bottom of the Full Report list to the left of the Full Report, one must ask permission to reuse from semester to semester in a course pack.

  !RightsLink

  Create an account with RightsLink and request the appropriate permission. If you are just linking to an article, there is no need to request special permission to post the link.
Special Features

Cite Now
- Clicking on Cite Now in the Toolbar opens a window that allows one to choose the citation in a number of different styles. The default is APA. Select the text, copy, and then paste in your document.

View PDF
This feature allows one to view the article the way it appeared in the periodical from which it was digitized. The article opens in another window for ease of viewing. If it doesn’t readily appear, check links at the bottom of the screen for another browser tab.

Send Email or Print: Choose all or part of the file to be sent via email or printed by selecting from the drop box under Send Email or the drop box under Print.