MagillOnLiterature Plus

MagillOnLiterature Plus produced by Salem Press, is the premier literary database, combining MagillOnLiterature and MagillOnAuthors. This database includes all the literary works, reviewed critical analyses and brief plot summaries that are included in MagillOnLiterature, as well as all the biographies and author essays included in MagillOnAuthors. It provides author biographies, plot summaries, character profiles, and setting discussions, including material found in Masterplots, Masterplots II, Cyclopedia of World Authors, Cyclopaedia of Literary Characters, Magill’s Literary Annual 1990-2004, Magill’s Guide to Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, Magill Book Reviews, Critical Surveys, Magill’s Choice: Notable Poets, Magill’s Choice: Shakespeare, Magill’s Choice: 100 Masters of Mystery and Detective Fiction and World Philosophers and Their Works.

MagillOnLiterature Plus is searched in the same manner as all other EBSCO databases. Follow the instructions for basic searching in the “EBSCO Searching” booklet. This page lists some of the unique features of MagillOnLiterature Plus.

You may find ways to customize your search in the “Search Options” area below the search box. MagillOnLiterature Plus allows you to search by limiters such as Full-text, Dates, Author, Literary Character, and Literary Genre.

Your search may retrieve one or more biographical articles. If you would like to see all biographical essays, click the “Biographies” link to the left of the list of results.
You may also narrow your results by subject by clicking on one of the links in the blue box to the left of your results.

View the individual essays by clicking on the “Full Text” links. You may print, email, or save your findings. Individual essays may be saved by clicking on the links located at the top of each essay.

MagillOnLiterature includes two special features: Glossary and Indexes. To use either of these features, click the word in the blue menu bar near the top of the screen. For the glossary, type a term into the “Browsing:” box, and click “Browse.”

To use the Indexes feature, click the “Indexes” word and use the drop down box to select the index you want to search. Type the term you would like to find in the “Browse for:” box, and click “Browse.”
